The Fuel Question

Every one who has a house to heat is interested in any method to cut down fuel expenses, or to get more heat from the same amount of fuel.

The Round Oak Furnace

accomplishes this in four different ways, any one of which would make a very noticeable difference.

- 1st. There is no waste heat—all the heat furnished is sent into the house.
- 2nd. It will hold a uniform fire—low or raging hot—longer than any other.
- 3rd. It will keep the house warm all the time—never allowing it to become cold at night and so doubling its work the next day.
- 4th. It burns all the gases and smoke which is equivalent to more fuel.

Write for our free descriptive book "Warmth and Comfort." Heating plans furnished free of charge, giving proper location of furnace, of cold and warm air intakes, size of pipes and all details.

Kinne-Brooks.
Mr. Roy Kinne, of Owosso, and Miss Iva Brooks were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orsen Sugden in Shiawassee township by Rev. C. M. Keene of the Disciple church. About seventy-five guests were present and after the ceremony congratulations were extended and an splendid wedding lunch served. After a short trip the couple will be at home at 802 N. Water street. Mr. Kinne is a member of the firm of Kinne Bros. real estate dealers, coming to Owosso from Fenton in February.

Gute's Hill.
An attempt was made at Monday's council meeting to have the council pay $500 for an option on the Gute Hill property for which $5,000 is asked, but the absurdity of the proposition was made apparent and the resolution withdrawn. The idea was to buy the property for a park if the people would vote the amount when the matter was submitted to them. Rev. M. DeVoist of the Free Methodist church says the church people still desire to purchase the property and will probably do so. They claim to have an option running to Sept. 15 for the property at $5,500.

Robbins-Easton.
Mr. Benjamin Robbins and Miss Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Easton, were married Monday afternoon at 2:30 at Christ Episcopal church, Rev. D. W. Wise officiating. The groom is a well known young man of West Owosso, being associated with his brother, J. H. Robbins, Jr., in the management of the Robbins Table Co. The bride has been a resident of Owosso but a short time, the family having moved here recently and live at the corner of Bradley and Cedar streets, where the newly married couple will make their home for the present. Congratulations are extended by a large number of friends.

Indoor Base Ball.
The West Owosso indoor base ball team which won the championship of the United States and practically of the world last year, has reorganized for another season's work by electing C. B. Symes, manager; Eugene Youngs, captain; Thomas Dowling, secretary-treasurer. The team will consist of E. Sanderhoff, first base, John Brown, second base; E. Youngs, third base; T. Dowling, right short stop; W. Dowling, left short stop; R. Chipman, J. Dwyer, Leo McKenzie, fielders, with battery undecided, although it is hoped Shotwell and Fletcher will be in their usual places. Fletcher is working in Lansing and with Shotwell may accept a professional offer for the winter.

Mrs. Collins Discharged.
Mrs. Caroline Collins, of New Lothrop, who was convicted of the murder of Geo. Leachman and served two years of a life sentence before the supreme court ordered a new trial, is free, Judge Miner having ordered her discharge on Tuesday morning, the prosecuting attorney having recommended such action, believing a re-conviction was impossible, as the strongest evidence against the woman could not be again used under the decision in the case by the supreme court. The prosecutor also found there would be difficulty in getting the witnesses. There is also a general sentiment that the woman is not guilty and has been fully punished for any wrongs she may have committed. John T. McCurdy, her attorney, is highly pleased with the result of his long continued efforts for the release of Mrs. Collins.

Mrs. Collins has no plans for the future, but is glad to be at liberty.

J. G. Olney Dead.
J. Green Olney, of Venice township, one of the well known farmers of the county, died at Harper's hospital in Detroit, Wednesday, as a result of injuries received by being knocked down by a bull at the state fair grounds week before last. Mrs. Olney had been with him since the day of the accident and his son and wife were in Detroit at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife, mother, a daughter and a son and other relatives. He was one of the most successful farmers in the county, and a man highly esteemed.

Very Sad Death.
About 4:30 yesterday afternoon Mrs. James Montfort, of Corunna, attempted to start a fire with kerosene and while pouring the same into the stove the can exploded scattering the burning oil over her clothes burning her so badly that death ensued later in the evening. Her aged mother in attempting to smother the flames with a piece of carpet had her hands badly burned. Mrs. Montfort is survived by her husband and two sons, one of whom is in Montana. She was a sister of F. H. and S. Z. Watson, of this city. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family.

The family home was also considerably damaged by fire.

Reimer-Clough.
The marriage of Cyrus Reimer, of Cleveland, and Miss Laura Clough, of this city, occurred Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of the bride's brother, Harry T. Clough, Rev. C. H. Hanks officiating, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Reimer left in the evening for a visit at Saginaw and Detroit and will soon leave for an extended trip west.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Reimer are well known and popular people, he having been engaged in the hardware business in Owosso some years ago, and later connected with the Owosso Mfg. Co. He is now the travelling representative of one of the big steel concerns with headquarters in Cleveland where they will reside. Mrs. Reimer was bookkeeper at the Owosso Mfg. Co. for several years and later at Lyon & Pond's. She was a member of the Monday Night club, the Congregational church choir and other organizations. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

Miss Westcott's Recital.
In spite of the intense heat, a good audience greeted the soprano, Miss Nellie Westcott in her initial appearance at recital work Tuesday evening at the Congregational church. The program was full of good things and was most enjoyable throughout. Miss Westcott was assisted by Mr. Frederic B. Stiven, organist and pianist, of Oberlin, Ohio; her vocal instructor, Mrs. Ellen B. Peabody, acting as accompanist.

Mr. Stiven proved to be an artist of exceptional talent, the audience showing their appreciation with hearty encores. Among his organ numbers, the difficult 3d act introduction to "Lohengrin" deserves special mention; in this Mr. Stiven was at his best, playing with great breadth and finish. His piano number, too, Chopin's favorite, A flat Ballade, was well received. Mr. Stiven playing the dainty G flat waltz by the same composer, as a return number.

Among Miss Westcott's groups of songs, Liszt's "Thou Art So Like a Flower," and Gounod's Waltz Song from "Romeo and Juliet," was beautifully done. The last named revealing the sweet quality of Miss Westcott's high register as well as her mastery of trills, runs, and other vocalization. Although Miss Westcott sang her work distinctly, the acoustic properties of the auditorium made it difficult for those sitting in the rear to understand her, and it is hoped that this fault can be remedied. Owosso people are glad to hear so talented a singer amongst us and the fact was certainly demonstrated Tuesday evening.

Nye Family in Trouble.
Myron Nye, who runs the saloon hotel on South Washington street, which is the scene of many fights and other troubles to the police, was in a fighting mood Saturday and commenced by knocking his wife down. Officers Welte, Martin and Neuman went to the place to stop the disturbance and Nye drew a revolver on the officers. Chief Welte took it away from him but George Nye interfered in behalf of his father and as a result is held in $300 bail for examination Sept. 26 for interfering with the officers. Myron Nye was jailed and will be examined Sept. 26 on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. To add to the old man's troubles, his wife, by Walsh & Pardee, commenced suit Monday for divorce, claiming that her husband has wrongfully accused her of consorting with other men, that he has beaten her repeatedly and is a hard drinker.

Nye was carrying around several hundred dollars in money and notes when arrested.

SALE OF BERKSHIRE SWINE.
Second Annual Sale at Owosso, Wednesday, Sept. 26th, by Mound Spring Farms—Choice Animals to be Sold at Auction

Our readers will recall the successful sale of Berkshire Swine held in this city a year ago by Hibbard & Brown. At that time bidders were present from all parts of the state and every animal offered was quickly sold at prices which were highly satisfactory to the buyers. This year 35 animals are to be included in the sale, many of them prize winners at the State and West Michigan fairs this year. Eleven of the animals are boars and twenty-four sows, every one of them royally bred—in fact, there is no better line of Berkshire breeding than is to be found in the stock at Mound Spring farm. The blood of the famous sire Masterpiece, 77000, predominates. This boar sold for $1,000 when two years old; at $2,500 when four years old, and one grandson sold for $3,000. One of his sons, one daughter, eight grandsons and eleven granddaughters will be offered. Other sires represented are Mount's Lad, a great prize winner and stock getter, Windsor Lee 2d, and Golden Lee 11th. The animals are sold under a positive guarantee as to their usefulness. The sale will be held at the ten cent feed barn, East Main street beginning at 1 o'clock p. m. Shiawassee county farmers should improve this opportunity to buy as good Berkshires as can be found in the country.

OPPOSITION TO JARRAD.
Democrats Not Allowed to Express it in Convention.

The democrats of the county met in convention Monday forenoon in the supervisors' room at the court house and appointed the following committees to report at the afternoon session at the park casino:

Permanent organization and order of business—Patrick Jordan, Luther Loucks, William Killian.

Credentials—J. Snyder, Geo. Love, Charles Powers.

Resolutions—Dr. R. C. Fair, George E. Pardee, J. H. Benson.

A committee to receive names suggested for different offices was also made up of chairmen of the different delegations. At 1:30 D. J. Gerow called for order at the casino. Owen Rippey read the reports of committees which were unanimously adopted, J. H. Benson, of Laingsburg being made chairman. After much talking it was decided to have the chairmen of the delegations cast the vote for their townships on nominations except where there were two candidates or more. Tellers were appointed and then, without casting a ballot, and after much waiting for names to be suggested for the various offices, a ballot was unanimously named.

Stanley P. ... was suggested for representative but he sent word that he would not accept; Ira Snyder was suggested, but he declined. W. F. Gallagher was also not willing and finally Augustus Woodard, of Owosso, admitted he was not afraid to run and the convention quickly put him on the list. W. F. Gallagher then presented Warren Jarrad for sheriff claiming that he had always done his duty, favored nor feared any man and he was glad he had seconded his nomination two years ago and had never been ashamed of it. Dr. Smith, of Vernon, said he believed Jarrad could get one hundred more votes than any other democrat in Vernon township and that the county had never had a better sheriff. Wallace Burke also seconded the nomination thinking Mr. Jarrad should have a second term; that he had been abused and accused of misdemeanor, but which he had not been convicted of committing; that his father was a good man and Jarrad himself was a good man and a true friend.

Dr. R. C. Fair asked for a ballot but the chair did not entertain the motion and started to put a motion that the secretary cast the ballot of the convention for Jarrad when Dr. Fair on behalf of some of the delegates objected and called for an informal ballot. After considerable talk, the chairman put the motion and Jarrad was nominated, and then he explained that he did not understand that Dr. Fair on behalf of some of the delegates had objected.

After quite a wait for someone to report, L. L. Conn said J. E. Lawcock, of Venice, had been suggested for clerk and he was quickly named. Dr. H. C. Benson, of Laingsburg, was chosen for Register of Deeds.

Oscar Cronk was suggested for treasurer, and Ira Snyder spoke of T. M. Euler. Mr. Euler said he did not desire a nomination and thought Cronk would make a better run, but the convention chose Euler unanimously.

B. Williams nominated Geo. E. Pardee for prosecuting attorney and the nomination was seconded by Wallace Burke, who said Mr. Pardee was an able, conscientious, public spirited attorney and fully capable of filling properly this most important office. It was not known that Mr. Pardee would accept but he was chosen by acclamation.

Ralph Payne was selected to run for surveyor and A. L. Beard and Owen Rippey for circuit court commissioners, although the latter said he would not be a resident of the county by election time.

Wallace Burke suggested that it would be a good thing to have two reputable doctors as candidates for coroners, who would have sense enough to realize when to hold an inquest and when to stay away and not be looking for the fee to be made out of interfering with the action of dead people's families in their arrangement for funerals; making them step aside for a "jury" to "view" the remains. Dr. T. B. Scott was suggested but it was stated he was a republican; Dr. Fair said he would not accept and finally Dr. Shickle, of Owosso and Dr. Holtzman, of Vernon were put on the ticket.

Resolutions were adopted as follows: Resolved, That we, the democrats of Shiawassee county, assembled, do hereby proclaim our allegiance to and pledge our support for good, honest, economical government in our state, that the rights and business of the common people may be properly supervised and protected against the steady encroachments of large corporate and special interests. To this end we endorse the earnest and energetic efforts of Hon. Charles H. Kimmerle, our candidate for governor, to bring questions in their true light to the consideration of the citizens and taxpayers.

Second, We pledge undivided support to our candidates for the legislature and county officers, and ask all electors who are interested in good government to give them their support in the coming election.

Third, We express our belief in an honest and economical administration of all county offices, and believe it is the duty of all electors to demand such officials in all public offices, and enforce such principles by their ballots.
